On December 27, 2025, at approximately 2021 hours, I responded to The Magic Kingdom located at 4602 North World Drive, within Orange County, Florida, regarding a petit theft. My investigation revealed the following:Upon arrival, I spoke to the Disney security Manager, Kenneth Heitmeyer (reporter). Mark told me the following in both a verbal and sworn written statement:Kenneth stated that at approximately 0919 hours on December 27, 2025, an unidentified male, now known as Majed Alshamnari (suspect), had snuck past the ticketing touchpoints and into the Magic Kingdom park, but was redirected to guest services to purchase a ticket for the day. Majed, who was with his family (who had tickets) had managed to sneak past the guest services line without paying for a ticket.Once Majed entered the park without paying a ticket, Kenneth said he changed shirts with his wife to be evasive. Kenneth stated that Disney security released multiple BOLOs for Majed throughout the day. At approximately 1936 hours, Majed was located inside the park. Kenneth verified that it was in fact the same person they had been looking for. When Majed was approached, Kenneth stated that Majed tried to sit and hide with his head between his legs to avoid being seen. Kenneth said Majed (and his wife) were invited to the security office, and they obliged.Kenneth stated that in the first few interactions with Majed, Majed spoke and understood English, but after entering the security office, Majed said he could not speak English and could only speak Arabic. I spoke with Majed using Google Translate. Majed advised that he was under the impression that he could get into the park because his eight-year-old daughter had a ticket, and since he was chaperoning her, he should get in without a ticket.I advised him that Disney staff had already told him once that he needed a ticket after he snuck past the ticketing touchpoints. Majed acted like he still did not understand.Kenneth stated that he wishes to press charges for theft on behalf of Disney. Kenneth advised the cost of the admission ticket was approximately $300. It should be noted that Disney also issued a trespass warning to Majed under this same case number.I informed Majed that he will be arrested for petit theft. Majed was secured and transported to Orange County Booking and Receiving without incidentMy body-worn camera was activated during the investigation.
