IN AND FOR OSCEOLA COUNTY, FLORIDA
CRIMINAL JUSTICE DIVISION

STATE OF FLORIDA
Petitioner,

CASE: 2026-CF-003729-A-OS
DIVISION: 10-A

v.

EVA JACQULYN ESPINOSA,
Defendant.

NOTICE OF APPEARANCE OF COUNSEL,
WRITTEN PLEA OF NOT GUILTY & WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT, DEMAND FOR DISCOVERY

The undersigned attorney hereby enters a Notice of Appearance as Counsel for the above-named Defendant. The clerk of this Court is hereby requested to furnish a copy of the information with endorsements thereon, by mail to the undersigned attorney at the address below.

WRITTEN PLEA OF NOT GUILTY & WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT

COMES NOW the Defendant, pursuant to Rule 3.170 (a), Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, by and through his undersigned attorney and hereby enters a written plea of not guilty and a waiver of arraignment to the charges contained in the above-styled cause.

DEMAND FOR DISCOVERY

The Defendant, by and through the undersigned attorney, respectfully demands that the Office of the State Attorney, within fifteen days from the filing of this pleading, disclose to defense counsel all discovery required or authorized under Rule 3.220(a), Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, and further demands that the following information and material:

1. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(A), the names and addresses of all persons known to the prosecutor to have information which may be relevant to the offense charged, and to any defense with respect thereto.

2. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(B), the statement of any person whose name is furnished in compliance with the request of Paragraph 1, above. The term “statement”, as used herein, includes, but is not limited to, a written statement made by said person and signed or otherwise adopted or approved by him/her, and any statement of any kind made by such a person and written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording. This definition specifically includes all police and investigative reports of any kind prepared for or in connection with the above-captioned case.
3. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(C), any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements made by the accused, including a copy of any statements contained in police reports or reports summaries, together with the name and address of each witness to the statements.
4. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(D), any written or recorded statements and substance of any oral statements made by a co-defendant, if the trial is to be a joint one.
5. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(E), those portions of recorded grand jury minutes that contain testimony of the accused.
6. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(F), any tangible papers or objects that were obtained from or belonged to the accused. Please indicate the individual location of each and every such item so as to permit inspection.
7. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(G), whether the state has any materials or information which has been provided by a confidential informant.
8. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(H), whether there has been any electronic surveillance, including wiretapping, of the premises of the accused, or of conversations to which the accused was a party, and any documents relating thereto.
9. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(I), whether there has been any search or seizure and any documents relating thereto.
10. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(J), reports or statements of experts made in connection to with the particular case, including results of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons.

11. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(K), any tangible papers or objects that the prosecuting attorney intends to use in the hearing or trial and that were not obtained from or that did not belong to the accused.
12. Pursuant to Rule 3.220(b)(1)(4), any material or information within the State's possession or control that tends to negate the guilt of the accused as to any offense charged, including, but not limited to, the following:
 - (a) In general, any and all so-called "Brady Material", pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and its progeny. Thus, Defendant specifically demands notice of and an opportunity to see, examine, and copy all such information, statements, objects, experts opinions, test results, or other material which is, or may be, exculpatory to, or of, the accused, including any firearms, blood, breath, urine, semen, or other bodily fluids, fingerprints, hair, powder burns, handwriting, photos, witness statements, testing equipment (including, within the last twelve months, any breakdowns, malfunctions, erroneous operation, erroneous calculations, or erroneous repairs and/or conclusions).
 - (b) Any statement given by or made by any person shown in response to Paragraph 1, which is inconsistent with any other statement made by such witness. Such statements should include any and all oral or written statements by such witnesses.
 - (c) Any promises of immunity, leniency, or recommendation made to any witness shown in response to Paragraph 1, or any attorney or representative on his or her behalf.
 - (d) Any and all offers for delivery, or express or implied agreements for future delivery, of a reward or compensation of any kind or description to any person shown in response to Paragraph 1 as payment or in return for his or her participation, cooperation, or testimony in this cause. This request is to be construed as requiring disclosure of any such reward or compensation in addition to or in excess of statutory witness fees or regular salary compensation to sworn law enforcement officers.

- (e) Any and all threats to prosecute any witness shown in response to Paragraph 1, when such threats were made by the prosecutor or any other agent for the State of Florida or the United States of America.
 - (f) Information or evidence as to any eyewitness identification made by any person, including, but not limited to, those witnesses shown in response to Paragraph 1, which witnesses have identified a person other than the accused as being the perpetrator of the witness offense charged.
 - (g) Information or evidence as to any description of the alleged perpetrator of the charged offense by any persons who purport to be eyewitnesses to the charge, which information or evidence does not, in some material respect, match the physical description of the accused.
13. Any and all criminal arrest records, rap sheets, or judgements or guilty or any witness disclosed by the State as a potential witness in the above-captioned case.
14. The criminal record, if any, of the accused.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY, that a true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished by efile/hand/mail delivery to the Office of the State Attorney, Division10@sao9.org, Osceola County Courthouse, 2 Courthouse Square, Suite 3500, Kissimmee, Florida on this 21st day of October, 2026.
