60. Agency Name	61. Agency Report Number:	62. Date/Time of Arrest:	63. Arresting Officer:
Bay County Sheriffs Office	2026-081663	@	ALVIN P ILER III ID# 451

64. NARRATIVE OF THE FACTUAL BASIS FOR PROBABLE CAUSE: The undersigned certifies that he / she has just and reasonable grounds to beleive that the heretoafter named defendant did commit the violation as stated above and the factual basis for belief is as follows:

On November 2nd, 2026, your affiant, Corporal Iler, states the defendant, Jalen Stanley, committed possession of a machine gun, in violation of F.S.S. 790.221 and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, in violation of F.S.S. 790.07.

On October 31st, 2026, your affiant was present with the victim of a scam who was ordered to place $30,000 in a box to later provide to an alleged federal agent who would be arriving to her house. At approximately 1415 hours on this date, the defendant arrived to the victim's residence in a black Chevy SUV and he was given a decoy package by the victim. Once the defendant left the residence, BCSO Investigators conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle the defendant was driving. The defendant was then transported to the BCSO Main Office to be interviewed in reference to a grand theft case. The defendant's vehicle was also impounded at the BCSO impound lot and a search warrant was obtained the same day.

As a result of the search warrant, a Glock 23 firearm was found stuffed in a pillow in the driver seat where the defendant was sitting. The firearm had a green piece labled "glock" with a purple switch attached to the back of the slide of the firearm. This switch allows the Glock to be converted from a semi-automatic to fully automatic firearm.

On November 2nd, 2026, the Glock was subject of a test fire at a BCSO firing range. As a result of the test fire, your affiant was able to confirm that with the switch activated, the Glock was converted to a fully automatic weapon. It should be noted this firearm was also reported stolen out of Georgia.

Based on the above facts and information, I find probable cause to charge Jalen Stanley in violation of possession of a machine gun and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony as he possessed this machine gun while committing the offenses grand theft and principal to scheme to defraud.

These offenses occurred in Bay County, Florida.

64. NARRATIVE OF THE FACTUAL BASIS FOR PROBABLE CAUSE: The undersigned certifies that he / she has just and reasonable grounds to beleive that the heretoafter named defendant did commit the violation as stated above and the factual basis for belief is as follows:

On November 1st, 2026, your affiant, Corporal Iler, states the defendant, Jalen Stanley, committed possession of a controlled substance, in violation of F.S.S. 893.13.

On October 31st, 2026, the defendant was the subject of a traffic stop due to being involved in an on-going scam with an elderly female. In the traffic stop, Stanley was the driver of a black Chevy Trailblazer with a Georgia license plate. Stanley was transported to the BCSO main office to be interviewed and the vehicle was transported to the BCSO impound lot, where a search warrant was obtained. As a result of the search warrant, a ziplock pouch was found just inside the driver door pocket next to where Stanley was sitting. Inside the pocket, another Investigator located two white capsule pills with 10/325 on one side of the pill and M523 on the other side. These pills were identified as Oxycodone hydrochloride, a schedule II controlled substance.

This offense occurred in Bay County, Florida.
