Dominic Solicito has been reported to have received $120,395.00 in payments for repairs and upgrades to pools and spas from June 3, 2022, through July 17, 2024, from the above victims. Dominic failed to complete any work for the victims except for in one case where he only completed $10,400.00 worth of his $44,240.00 received for the job. Dominic required full payment up front instead of the 10% required by Florida Statute. Dominic has reimbursed his customers $14,200.00 since signing contracts and agreeing to reimburse them through mediation with Seniors Versus Crimes. Dominic made a net profit $106,195.00 from these cases. Dominic has acknowledged to Seniors Versus Crimes that he has made the same reimbursement agreements with approximately 20 other unidentified victims.

On October 1, 2026, Dominic contacted Tomee of Seniors Versus Crimes stating he was receiving letters demanding repayment from the victims he had mediated the agreements with.

The totality of the circumstances show that Dominic continually would enter into contracts or agreed upon repairs for pools and spas with the intent to deprive the customers of their money after failing to complete the work. There is probable cause that Dominic Solicito, the owner of Advanced Pool and Spa Technologies, committed three counts of Grand Theft $750.00 to $5,000.00, four counts of Grand Theft $5,000.00 to $10,000.00 and two counts of Grand Theft $20,000.00 to $100,000.00.
